1. Georgiev returned to Karlshorst for two weeks in November 1947 and then went back to Moscow. He is not expected to return to Germany.
2. During the November visit, he showed a radical change in his personal political attitude, abandoning his ideas of reconciliation between Russia and the West and stressing Russia's need to hold her own political line and increase Russian influence in eastern Europe.
3. Georgiev retained his pre-Moscow trip ideas of the need for a new Party in the Russian Zone and criticism of the SED.
